BOOKING TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR RYA COURSES.

Payment:

A non-refundable deposit of £100 is payable on booking the course. The booking is not confirmed until the booking form provided is returned completed, signed and the deposit has been paid.

The balance of the course fee and any extras must be paid 28 days before the course is due to commence. If the course is booked within one calendar month of the start of the course, the full amount of the course fee is due with the booking. To cancel, written notice must be received at least 28 days before the course is due to commence otherwise the balance of the course fee remains payable. We strongly recommend that travel insurance cover is in place for such an eventuality.

Changes, Delays and Cancellations:

If a minimum number of participants have not confirmed their booking by 28 days prior to the course commencement date, then it may be necessary to cancel or postpone the course. In these circumstances, every effort will be made to rearrange at a mutually convenient time or the deposit will be refunded. No further liability will exist on either party. Isle of Skye Yachts reserves the right to substitute any advertised training yacht with another of similar and/or suitable specification. If weather is forecast that may inhibit or prevent the safe completion of the RYA Syllabus or passage of the yacht, then Isle of Skye Yachts may, at its discretion, cancel the course or postpone to another date. Isle of Skye Yachts will attempt to contact you by telephone, giving you at least 24hrs notice (if possible), if a delay is likely. The Course Instructor has the final say on whether the yacht goes to sea, without any exceptions. Any days spent in port due to bad weather will be spent doing theory lessons making up for lost time at sea. If the course is cancelled Isle of Skye Yachts will give you another course date.

Age Limits and Responsibility:

Isle of Skye Yachts cannot accept students under the age of 16. Students aged 16 to 18 must be accompanied by a responsible adult. There is no upper age limit, but students should satisfy themselves that they are fit and able to join their chosen course. The student is deemed to:-

Be aware that sailing can be dangerous and has certain inherent risks. (For example the possibility of sailing in adverse weather conditions is one of the inherent risks).

Voluntarily accept the risk of injury. (For example, such as might be sustained to the skull during an accidental gybe, or to the hand or neck trapped in a mainsheet or to a back while hauling on a halyard are all part and parcel of the obvious risks that must be willingly accepted by the student).

Voluntarily accept the risk of serious injury or even death. (For example some of the less obvious dangers of sailing are the possibility of drowning or hypothermia following a sudden change of weather, or man overboard, or capsized incident).

Voluntarily accept that the wind strength and direction plays an important part in the benefit obtained from the Course he or she chooses to take part in.

Insurance:

Our yachts are fully insured against accidents and carry third party liability insurance, but responsibility is not accepted for personal accidents, damage or loss due to your negligence. Unnecessary equipment damage and losses attributed to your carelessness will be charged to you at replacement price. You are strongly recommended to arrange personal insurance cover for your own cancellation, bodily injury and personal liability. Damage of your personal property by another student is not the responsibility of Isle of Skye Yachts.

Student's responsibilities:

To ensure that they do not take any action which, jeopardises the safety of fellow students, skipper or yacht.

To observe the standards of personal conduct which will not be considered offensive by fellow students or neighbouring vessels.

In the event of unacceptable behaviour, Isle of Skye Yachts reserves the right to terminate the offending client's course. This may involve being put ashore at the first available opportunity. The Skippers decision in all such matters is final and binding. In these circumstances course fees will not be refunded.

RYA Certificates:

Isle of Skye Yachts has high standards of instruction and applies RYA guidelines on the issue of certificates. Certificates will not be issued if, in the opinion of the instructor, the student has not reached the necessary standard. Certificates are awarded by the Principal of Isle of Skye Yachts on the recommendation of the instructor.

Responsibility:

Neither Isle of Skye Yachts nor its servants or agents shall be liable for any loss, injury or damage which may arise as a result of the normally accepted risks of sailing in a small yacht.

This contract is subject to the Law of Scotland.
